

In this issue: New bank account for ICCRS! Transferring money to this new account is much easier for Europeans.

I am very happy to announce that ICCRS has opened a new account for incoming donations in Europe:

- Owner of account: ICCRS
- IBAN: DE84 7509 0300 0003 0100 74
- BIC: GENODEF1M05
- bank code = 750 90 300
- account number = 30 100 74
- name and address of bank:
Liga-Bank Regensburg-Wuerzburg, Martinstrasse 15, 97070 Wuerzburg, Germany

Please help us to make known this bank-details since

- ➔ ICCRS relies on incoming donations
- ➔ Transferring money to this new account is much easier for Europeans, because this bank is within the SEPA-area in the EU.
- ➔ Within the SEPA-area (most of EU) all transfers of money to this new account are without any fee, 100% of your donation goes to ICCRS.
This account is meant for those sending donations within the European Union. Donators from outside Europe have the choice between using this account or all other possibilities mentioned on the ICCRS webpage www.iccrs.org

As you know ICCRS only is able to survive because of incoming donations. With those we have to pay our (very few) staff in the office and have to finance all international projects we are running e.g. the CCR-event during the World-Youth-Day in Krakow 2016 and all preparations for the upcoming Jubilee in 2017.

Thank you for any support by prayer, finances and promotion for ICCRS!

Christof Hemberger

Chairman of ESCI (European Subcommittee of ICCRS)
